South Beloit, IL, September 10, 2008 – Libertarian U.S. Senate Candidate Larry Stafford announced today that he will be appearing at a fundraiser at a private home in Chicago on Sunday, September 21st.

"I look forward to greeting the voters and answering all questions regarding this election and my course for the future of the country," remarked Stafford. "I will also spend as much time as is necessary with all print and broadcast media," he added. "I prefer this type of setting to talk with people as opposed to expecting voters to attend a $100 a plate dinner just to see and spend time with their candidates," he said.

The fundraiser, an outdoor barbeque, will be held at the home of Ed Rutledge, Chair of the Chicago chapter of the Libertarian Party of Illinois. The address is: 2027 W. Leland, in Chicago. The festivities will begin at 2 p.m.
