South Beloit, IL, October 23, 2008 – Einstein taught us that the definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again while expecting a different result. When incumbents are re-elected over and over again, and when Democrats and Republicans are the only parties elected to serve the people of Illinois in Washington D.C., history has proven that it is not possible to effect the right change which will benefit the lives of regular citizens. Both of the major parties are beholden to raising money and to repaying their special interest supporters that fund their campaigns.

On November 4th, the voters of Illinois have a chance to send a strong message to career politicians and to the nation that they have had enough. They have had enough of an ever increasing national debt, the outrageous Wall Street bailouts and the possible nationalization of our banks, the shrinking of our civil liberties, the deployment of our precious military to far too many countries around the world, and our dependence on foreign oil.

Make a statement and vote for Larry Stafford for U.S. Senate. Stafford is not a professional politician and does not profess to be an expert on all issues. He is a truck driver, family man and military veteran who will bring common sense and a middle class citizen's perspective to the U.S. Senate. He possesses solid judgment, trustworthiness and an understanding of the Constitution. He is one of us. Aren't there enough lawyers in the Senate already?

Stafford cites three items that his campaign is focusing on to move the country in the right direction: (1) ending the occupation in Iraq and bringing troops home from a majority of bases around the world, (2) ending the income tax to give a real stimulus to taxpayers, and (3) lowering energy costs by creating an environment of American energy independence.

Illinois voters have an alternative. Don't waste your vote by re-electing the same politicians with their same tired old ideas, the ones who created the fine mess we're in right now. We cannot afford it and if we want change, we must start now. Vote for reason. Vote for integrity. Vote for a new path. Vote for Larry Stafford, Libertarian candidate for U.S. Senate.
